Press Release

For Immediate Release

Friday, June 15, 2018

On Friday, June 15, 2018 at 2:11 a.m., Glendale Heights police officers responded to a traffic crash on North Ave. west of Glen Ellyn Rd. Two vehicles were involved and one had burst into flames. The driver of one vehicle was assisted from the car and taken to Glen Oaks Hospital for treatment. The driver of the second car was trapped inside and pronounced dead at the scene.

DUCART (DuPage County Accident Reconstruction Team) responded to the accident scene and performed reconstruction duties. Eastbound North Ave. was closed between Bloomingdale Rd. and Glen Ellyn Rd. until approximately 7:50 a.m.

This investigation is ongoing and the cause of the crash has not yet been determined. If anyone has any information about this incident, please call the Glendale Heights Police Department at (630)260-6070.
