Glendale Heights, Illinois (March 21, 2014) – On Saturday, April 12th, Peter Cottontail will make a visit to Safety Town, located at 301 Civic Center Plaza in Glendale Heights. He will be dropping off an “egg-normous” supply of treat-filled Easter eggs for children up to 8 years old to hunt and collect. Age-specific Easter egg hunts are as follows:

- 8:15 am - Children 5 years and younger with adult assistance required
- 9:00 am - Children 6 to 8 years old with adult assistance required
- 9:30 am - Children 5 to 6 years old (children only)
- 10:00 am - Children 7 to 8 years old (children only)

This “egg-citing” event is free and no registration is required. Participants are urged to arrive early as the hunts begin promptly at the time listed. To ensure a fair and even opportunity for each child collecting Easter eggs, only Safety Town issued bags may be used which will be provided at the Safety Town entrance. For additional information, contact Tanya Macko at 630.909.5459.

Afterwards, hop on over to the Center for Senior Citizens located at 260 Civic Center Plaza in Glendale Heights for Breakfast with the Easter Bunny. There will be an all-you-can-eat pancake breakfast with sausage and drink. Photos with the Easter Bunny will also be available. No registration is required and the event fee is paid at the door. Breakfast is $5 for adults, $3 for children and $2 for pictures. For more information call the Glendale Heights Recreation Department at 630.260.6060.
