COMMUNICATIONS

A -Chairperson Schwerdtner received a copy of a memorandum from Village Administrator Mike Marron to Chief Flint advising him that the Police Commission should seek to hire 1 police candidate to replace Retired Officer Dennis King.

-Polygraph and Psychological testing results for Candidate Lapkus were received. Those results will be placed in her file.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

A. -Officers #376 and #382 received an Honorable Mention recognition for their efforts in solving sexual assault case which was reported to the department in October, 2019 but the assaults took place in the 1980's. In December, 2020, the officers drove to Ohio and obtained a video recorded statement from the accused. The officers obtained felony approval from the States Attorney's office and he was charged with 2 felony counts of Indecent Liberties and 2 felony counts of Aggravated Criminal Sexual Assault. The officers were recognized for getting a pedophile of over 45 years off the street. Job well done.

B. -DC Pappas advised that probationary officers #3012 and #3013 were doing very well #3014 and #3015 had Taser training this week and will start the academy next week. #3011 who recently finished the academy and is in the FTO program performed CPR on a subject who had overdosed and the subject survived. Job well done.

C. -None

- D. -Recording Secretary Hartigan advised that SLEA is attempting to add another academy class before the one beginning in June (we have 2 spots in the June academy). She advised that backgrounds for Candidate #6-9 are being completed now. As such, the commissioners decided to tentatively schedule March 29, 2021 and April 5, 2021 for interviews. Chairperson Schwerdtner asked Recording Secretary Hartigan to go through the background packets and point out things they should look at. He would like it pointed out if certain candidates should not be brought in for an interview in advance of scheduling them.

NEW BUSINESS

- A. -Chairperson Schwerdtner inquired about the amount of officers who have shown interest in taking the Sergeant's exam. DC Pappas stated the following:
- a. He expects 12-15 to take the exam.
 - b. 3 quotes were received.
 - c. Testing is included in the upcoming budget.
 - d. RSM is available the entire month of September.
 - e. The current list expires October 14, 2021. There is a meeting scheduled for October 13, 2021 therefore, if the finalized list is ready, it could be signed that evening and be in effect the following day.

-DC Pappas was asked to get input from the new Sergeant's regarding what they would like to be included in the testing process.

-DC Pappas was asked to ensure that the candidates are knowledgeable about HB3653 as they will be responsible for enforcing it.

- B. -Information regarding HB 3653 was distributed to the commission.
C. -Discussion took place regarding asking for an increase to the commissioner's stipend as it has been the same for the past 26 years, minimum.
