On Saturday, December 29 at approximately 1:06 AM, the Glendale Heights Police Department was summoned to the 0-100 block of Joseph Lane for a report of a domestic disturbance occurring inside a residence. Responding officers were confronted by a male white subject holding two knives. The subject did not comply with commands to drop the knives and was subsequently shot by police. He has been transported to an area hospital and his injuries do not appear to be life threatening.

This incident is currently under investigation by the DuPage County Major Crimes Task Force. No criminal charges have been filed as of this writing. Investigators are confident there is no risk to the safety of the community. Additional details will be shared when available.
