On Friday, October 4 at approximately 7:35 PM, the Glendale Heights Police Department was summoned to Valli Produce, 155 E North Avenue, for a report of a disturbance involving a male subject yelling at customers inside the store. The subject was handcuffed after a brief struggle, and then appeared to suffer from an unknown type of medical emergency. Paramedics were summoned and the subject was transported to Glen Oaks Hospital where he was pronounced deceased by medical staff.

This incident is currently under investigation by the Metropolitan Emergency Response Investigations Team Major Crimes Unit. Additional details will be shared when available.
