

GHPD Juvenile Diversion Program

The Glendale Heights Police Department Juvenile Diversion Program provides a positive alternative to formal court processing for first time, misdemeanor, juvenile offenders.

The purpose of the Juvenile diversion Program is to provide youthful offenders with a positive alternative to the court system. Young offenders will participate in structured activities and group interactions which are intended to improve their understanding and perceptions of the legal system and law enforcement, increase their self-esteem, offer better methods of communication and improve their decision-making skills. Through structured activities and community service, the program aims to reduce the “repeat offender” rate among these participants.

By Providing this opportunity, youth are given the chance to maintain a clean record, while still being held accountable. For more information, contact the Police Department’s non-emergency number 630.260.6070. You can also speak with the School Resource Officer at your local school.
